

“2014 Lenten Soup Supper Speaker Series”

United Church of Bristol, U.C.C.

Corner of Oakmount Road and County Road 2

Bloomfield, New York

“Reaching in, Reaching back, and Reaching out”

The 2014 Lenten Soup Supper Speaker Series is as diverse as it is engaging:

Thursday, March 13th – Reaching In

The Rev. Al Keeney will be with us to help get us kick started on living intentionally. Plato is credited with having said: "the unexamined life is not worth living." Lent is a great time to take stock of our lives and get in touch with what makes life worth living!

Thursday, March 27th – Reaching Back

Ray Henry, historian for the Town of Canandaigua, will share his insights into “Barns of Ontario County and Western New York”, drawing upon his extensive research into the history of these local icons of agriculture.

Thursday, April 10th – Reaching Out

Pic Schade will whisk us half a world away as she offers stories of outreach to orphans in Lesotho, Southern Africa, having just returned from another 2 week visit there. First-hand anecdotes and new photos will abound!

All Soup Suppers begin at 6 p.m., and are free and open to the public, featuring delicious soups and breads served in a casual, relaxed atmosphere at 6:00p.m., followed by presentations starting at approximately 6:30p.m. The evening will wrap up by 7:30 p.m. All are warmly welcomed.
